

Wal-Mart donates $100,000 to the Rainbow Connection

Joe Venezia, Regional General Manager, Wal-Mart Stores presented Rainbow Connection founder L. Brooks Patterson and Executive Director Mary Grace McCarter with a check for $100,000 at the 29th Annual Dobson Golf Outing on July 21, 2008.

“Wal-Mart is proud to support The Rainbow Connection and help make wishes come true for children who need it the most,” explained Mr. Venezia. “We routinely give back to the communities we partner with, and we’re honored we can help in this endeavor.”

“The support of Wal-Mart and its associates is making a real difference in the lives of Michigan children. In addition to this check, Wal-Mart associates across Michigan are raising money at the store level to help our kids.” said Ms. McCarter. “We anticipate granting between 130 and 150 wishes this year and with the help of Wal-Mart and all our supporters we are confident we will meet our goals.”
